Protectors of Public Lands Victoria:

In accordance with our Constitution, member groups are asked to sign agreement with PPL (VIC) principles, which are set out in our Charter. A key principle is expressed as follows:

“Significant public lands do not belong to the Government of the day, they belong to the people. Governments must keep these sites in public ownership and control for present and future generations. Governments must also properly protect, conserve and manage these sites”.

I hereby agree to the principles of the Protectors of Public Lands Victoria Inc.
